The Husband and Wife Law Team gives another prize to deserving teacher, with monthly Teacher Appreciation Award

PHOENIX, Arizona, February 5, 2014 – Another lucky teacher was surprised the afternoon when Phoenix attorney Mark Breyer brought in a big check – just for her.

Traci Burns, of Bales Elementary School in Buckeye, Arizona, is the January winner of the law firm's monthly Teacher Appreciation Award.

She was recognized for the achievement in front of her administration and peers.

Burns was selected from hundreds of nominations made through the program's website, www.breyerlaw.com/LawyersForTeachers. Nominations are ongoing, and may be made for any excellent teacher that deserves a special thank-you.

MORE ABOUT DAY OF, quote from principal.

Mark and Alexis Breyer, The Husband and Wife Law Team, have selected a great Buckeye teacher to win the January Teacher Appreciation Award. Phoenix attorney Mark Breyer will personally present the prize of $250, a special plaque and a pizza party, to the Buckeye educator on February 5.

One special nomination caught the attention of The Husband and Wife Law Team. Facing adversity in medical conditions which require her to use a wheelchair in the classroom, the January Teacher Appreciation Winner has not given up. “Her job as a teacher does not stop, even when the bell rings and the kids go home,” the nominator wrote. “All of her time and effort goes into helping students learn to the best of their ability and beyond.”

Breyer will present the January award on February 5, and recognize the winner for her
